Re: CC Docket No. 95-116; WC Docket No. 07-149; WC Docket No. 09-109;
Recommendation of a Contract Vendor for the Local Number Portability
Administrator

Dear Ms. Veach and Chairman Kane:

I write on behalf of Neustar, Inc., to request that the Federal Communications Commission (“Commission”) and the North American Numbering Council (“NANC”) direct the members of (i) the LNPA Selection Working Group (“SWG”) and (ii) the Future of NPAC Subcommittee of the NAPM LLC (“FoNPAC”) to preserve and submit for the record all documents pertaining to their participation in the NANC recommendation and report of April 24, 2014.

According to the report, [BEGIN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION]

PUBLIC VERSION – REDACTED FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

[END CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION] Accordingly, the record is incomplete. The Commission and the public should have full access to those records. Indeed, reliance on the summary conclusions without access to the evaluative papers may constitute an improper delegation of the Commission's section 251(e) responsibilities to private parties with commercial interests in the outcome of the bid process.

Accordingly, we request that the work papers be included in the record. We further request written confirmation and assurance from all SWG, FoNPAC, NAPM and NANC participants that (i) all such records are, indeed, acknowledged to be part of the public record and (ii) will be preserved and maintained consistent with the requirements of federal law until this proceeding is finally concluded and all potential avenues for judicial relief exhausted.

Sincerely,

David D. Aufhauser
